2 Ben is lucky

a Complete the sentences with have to / has to or don't have to / doesn't have to.

Today is Saturday.

- Ben is lucky. He doesn't have to help at home. But he ... clean his bike today because it's dirty.
- Sally and her friend ... leave the party early. They can leave at 12 pm. But Sally's Mum ... fetch them.
- Sita ... go shopping. She needs some new shoes. Sanjay is working in the restaurant so Sita ... help.
- Nick There isn't a school match today so I ... play football. I can watch TV.

Dad OK. But you ... do your Maths homework first.

b Now use had to or didn't have to.

Last week lots of 7HM's teachers were ill.

- The children ... do French – great!
- But they ... write boring English exercises for hours and hours.
- Debbie ... dance at the drama club. She was happy because she isn't very good.
- The children were angry. They ... do lots of homework.

3 Emergency phone calls

a Read what Debbie said.

Woman What service are you calling?

Debbie The police, please. ... This is Debbie Baker. I'm phoning about an accident in Hoole Road. A girl on a bike was hurt. The car driver didn't stop – he drove away. We need an ambulance, too. I think the girl's leg is broken.

Woman Right. Please wait there.

Debbie OK. Bye.
